

BSA TROOP 58 Trip Notice

- What: Acadia National Park / Bicycling on the Carriage Roads
 This is a Friday evening to Sunday Afternoon trip to beautiful Acadia, another trip which we've done several times before. Progress on their Bicyling Merit Badge will be available to those interested.
- When: Friday, April 16 - Sunday, April 18, 1999 (First Weekend of vacation week)
 Friday, leave town between 5 and 6 pm, after drivers get off work. Quick Supper along the way. Saturday, Biking along the famous Carriage trails - we'll cover approx. 30 miles. Other special activities will be determined - one year we performed some service hours at the Acadia Wildlife Foundation shelter on Mt. Desert.. Perhaps a short Mountain hike on the west side of the island. Arrive home late afternoon Sunday.
- Where: Blackwoods Campground, Acadia National Park. Approximately 3 hours from town.
- Equipment: Tent Camping and Bicycle with appropriate clothing and gear. April can be chilly - bring hat and gloves for bike ride and suitable clothing. The troop has tents and gear, but bring your own if you have it. We need at least two people with trailers to tow bicycles. Let us know if you have a trailer.
